TOPIC: NUTRITION RESOURCE FOR CANCER SURVIVORS

 Please Join us:

19 March, 2025

When:

10:00am - 1:00pm

Where:

South Puget Intertribal Planning Agency
3104 SE Old Olympic Hwy, Shelton, WA 98584

By attending, you will play a crucial role in ensuring that this nutrition resource reflects the rich culture and health needs of survivors in our communities.

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

- Join your community members for a 3 hour in-person session
- Participate in up to two additional 60-minute sessions
- Share your opinions and ideas about how to create a nutrition resource for cancer survivors that is useful and culturally tailored for tribal communities

WHO SHOULD BE PART OF THE SESSION?

- Cancer survivors and caregivers
- Community members with survivorship support experience
- Tribal garden staff and those with knowledge of traditional foods
- Traditional healers
- Clinic staff, community health representatives or community health workers working with survivors

WHAT WILL YOU GET IN RETURN?

- $50 for attending the 3 hour in person session and $25 for each additional virtual session
- Lunch will be provided at the in-person session
- Education from national and local experts on nutrition and how to improve the health of cancer survivors
- Opportunity to create a meaningful resource that incorporates recipes, stories, and lived experiences that can help survivors for generations to come.
